

Chapter 1 Note Sheet - Don't Be A "Know-It-All"

Cold Case Christianity for Kids

Daniel finds a _____ in the shed.

Daniel thinks it belongs to someone he knows named _____

Why does Daniel think the skateboard belongs to her?

But Detective Jeffries says, "To be a good cold-case detective, you can't start with your mind _____"

Jason thinks he has another example of people who seem to be "know-it-alls". What is his example?

Why does Detective Jeffries think Jason may have it "backwards"?

Detective Jeffries says "We need more _____ before we make any judgments on the subject."

Jason doesn't think miracles are possible. Detective Jeffries gives him an example of something miraculous. What is the example he offers?

Detective Jeffries says, "If something (or someone) was powerful enough to create everything we see in the universe from nothing, do you think it could also do other _____?"

A "Tool" For Your Detective Bag

Don't allow your _____ to stand in the way of the truth, and don't start an investigation assuming you already know the _____. Be open to following the evidence wherever it might lead
