

Chapter 3 Note Sheet - Think Circumstantially

Cold Case Christianity for Kids

Detective Jeffries says there are two ways to find out where the skateboard came from:

- (1) Witness evidence is called _____
- (2) Everything else is called _____ or _____ evidence.

Daniel went to Great Skates. What did he learn about the skateboard wheels?

What does this indirect evidence tell us about the age of the board?

Is there any "direct" evidence for God's existence?
_____ Why or why not?

Jeffries made a case for God's existence from several pieces of indirect evidence:

We are in a universe that _____ to exist.

The universe is incredibly _____ for the existence of life.

We see signs of _____ in biology.

God is the better explanation for the source of truth about _____.

Detective Jeffries says four very different pieces of evidence all point to the same

_____. God is the best _____ for all this evidence

A "Tool" For Your Detective Bag

Remember that nearly _____ can be used as evidence. There are many ways to build a case for God's existence and many kinds of evidence you can use to discover the truth about God. Look closely at the world around you to find more evidence of God's existence.
