

Chapter 3 Note Sheet - Directions for Life

God's Crime Scene for Kids

Two items in the shoebox are different than the rest because they contain _____, "Artists are _____, just like authors."

Who is the boy in the drawing? _____

What does Jason say about the tree in the drawing?

What kind of tree is it? _____

Where did it come from? _____

Why was it planted? _____

How did it get in Jason's Yard? _____

Who planted the tree? _____

Now, think about the universe. "All the _____ in our universe; everything on our planet from bacteria, to plants like Jason's Maple tree, to animals like Simba and even humans like all of us in this room - these living things came from _____."

"Your DNA contains all the _____ needed for you to be who you are."

Why does the information in DNA most reasonably point to an "intelligent who" as the source?

Here's what we know about our 'suspect' so far:

A "Tool" For Your Detective Bag

Five "W's" and One "H": Make sure you ask the "_____", "_____", "_____", "_____", and "_____" questions when trying to solve mysteries, even the mystery of the universe.
