

Chapter 7 Note Sheet - Choosing Right from Wrong

God's Crime Scene for Kids

Detective Jeffries tells the cadets that they recognized an important moral truth while waiting for Grandma Miri. What is it?

_____

"I'm so glad you waited to ask me about _____ my flowers," says Grandma Miri. "Just do your best not to _____ too many of these beauties as you _____ your mystery."

What do the cadets discover in the flowerbed? What does it contain?

Why aren't moral truths just a matter of personal opinion?

"We've discovered another important piece of evidence in the universe: the existence of _____ that apply to everyone." He adds this to his diagram. "But these _____ don't come from inside the universe - from people, countries or even entire planets. They come from something _____ than anything in the universe."

Here's what we know about our 'suspect' so far:

A "Tool" For Your Detective Bag

Know the Law: Detectives must _____ to determine if a suspect has violated it and should be arrested. You can call yourself a detective, but if you don't know the law, you're a detective in name only. If you're a Christian, you also need to know and _____, unless you want to be a Christian in name only.
