

Chapter 8 Note Sheet - Good News about Bad Things

God's Crime Scene for Kids

Why is the study Grandma Miri's happiest and saddest place?

Grandma Miri says, "My faith was _____. Ren always said that God is love, but I couldn't _____ that anymore. I just stopped believing in God altogether."

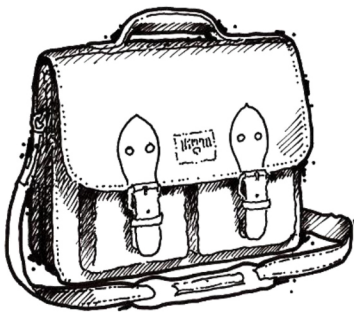

"Lots of people have questioned why an all-_____, all-_____ God would allow _____ to occur in the universe," says Jeffries to all the cadets.

"But if there's more to _____ than just what happens to us here in the _____, it might explain why God allows things to happen to us - even bad things."

"But if God wanted to develop those _____ attributes in all of us," says Jeffries, "He'd have to allow _____ things to happen. Fill in the missing words in Detective Jeffries's diagram:

Here's what we know about our 'suspect' so far:

A "Tool" For Your Detective Bag

Test Your Conclusions: Detectives aren't afraid to test their conclusions by examining all the different _____ for the evidence they've gathered. We want to make sure our conclusions are _____. You may hear different _____ for the eight pieces of evidence in the universe. Don't let that surprise you. Once you examine these different explanations, you'll discover the Christian explanation is _____.
