

Chapter 4 Training Activity - Test Your Witnesses

Cold Case Christianity for Kids

Draw a Line to Connect Each Character (or Witness) to His or Her Statement

"He was three years older than me, and I think he had a board with big wheels like this one."

"I didn't know they had skateboards back when Abraham Lincoln was president!"

"Our witnesses don't seem to agree entirely,"

"Everyone is different, so they sometimes see the same thing differently."

"Mr. Martin's description of Lincoln's shorts seems to match the description given by Lacey."

"But how do we know they weren't lying about the stuff that we can't verify with archaeology or names?"
