

Chapter 4 Note Sheet - Test Your Witnesses

Cold Case Christianity for Kids

How did Lacey's description of Daniel differ from Mr. Martin's?

How did Det. Jeffries account for the difference in these two witness accounts?

Detective Jeffries says, "Eyewitnesses never _____ entirely. That doesn't mean they're _____ or _____."

Four questions we need to ask to find out if a witness can be trusted:

Were they actually _____ ?

Can we _____ what they say in some way?

Have they _____ their story over time?

Do they have some reason to _____ ?

Were the gospels written early? Complete the following timeline:

What two examples does Det. Jeffries give to verify the Gospels?

_____ and _____

Detective Jeffries says, "The Gospel authors ended up dying for their claims and there isn't any evidence that they got _____ or _____, or even _____!"

A "Tool" For Your Detective Bag

Remember that witnesses can report things _____ yet still tell the _____. Now you know how to test witnesses, and when you apply the four-part test to the witness accounts in the Bible, you'll find the Gospels are reliable, even though they are slightly _____ in places.
