

Chapter 1 Note Sheet - How Did It Get Here?

God's Crime Scene for Kids

"_____ is not a good detective skill," says Jeffries.

Why does Detective Jeffries say, "None of you saw that." After picking up Simba?

In the attic, Detective Jeffries puts on a pair of _____ and pulls a _____ from his black detective bag,

One of the first questions an investigator asks, once he or she discovers what might be evidence, is:

Why is it more reasonable to believe that the shoebox came from outside the attic rather than inside the attic?

Detective Jeffries asks, "Could the evidence we find in the cosmos have been caused by something inside the universe, involving nothing more than _____, _____, and _____?"

Was the universe always here? _____

"Everything that has a beginning must be caused by _____. The cause of the shoebox couldn't be found inside the shoebox and the cause of the universe can't be found _____ either."

Here's what we know about our 'suspect' so far:

A "Tool" For Your Detective Bag

Take It In Order: When investigating a mystery, put _____ things _____. Start by collecting the _____, then figure out how the evidence _____. Don't get ahead of yourself and... be _____.
